Kris Hinn as the Marching Hare

"ALICE IN OZ" 4 GREAT PERFORMANCES

by the Young People's Theatre

The costumes were fantastic and the actors and actresses excellent as "Alice in Oz", a comedy, played to a full house at each of the four performances at Cambier Park in May.

Some of the major parts were double cast, as the auditions had turned up so much talent. Therefore, some actors alternated each of the four nights.

"Alice" was double cast with Sandy Knight and Janet Poole. Both girls sang a song and the applause almost brought the house down.

Other doubles were T.L. Lawrence and Missy Cheaney alternating as "The Wizard of Oz"; Rick Duggan and Donna Davenport alternating as the Mad Hatter, Justine Stoddard and Joyce Poole alternating as "Kitty Cat"; and Tara Lanius and Carol Courtney as the "Wicked Witch of the West".

Double casting was very exciting as each actor played the part differently, and each was responsible for prompting the other in rehearsals. Except for Alice's costumes, the other double cast parts each had very different costumes - Tara's witch wore ragged black clothes, a dirty face, and wild hair, and her laugh was diabolical. But Carol's witch was more like a dark haired Morgan Fairchild - a lovely black dress, jewelry, long combed hair, with a sarcastic laugh.

Kris Hinn played the "Marching Hare" complete with a military helmet and huge pink bunny ears poking through the top. Tweedle, Dee and Doubt were played by Tami Stange, Rachael Stesky and Karen Gaudet.

The Jack of Diamonds was played by Eric Light, the 5 of Clubs by John Miner, the 10 of Spades by Chris Hutton and the 2 of Clubs by Brian Gaudet.

"Magic" was played by Tiffany Jensen; the narrator was Sharon Courtney; and the Jitterbugs were Colleen Duggan, Jeffrey Davenport, Gabrielle Light, and Amy Rappaport.

A cast party was held on the last night's performance. Flowers were presented to the directors Mrs. and Mrs. Rich Duggan, and to Judy Lawrence. All the parents deserved a round of applause for the incredible costumes. Many thanks also to the staff at Cambier Park.

The Young People's Theatre will meet each Saturday afternoon at Cambier Park. Call 774-7772 for more information, or if you would like to join.

MISS CINDERELLA CONTEST

by Joyce Poole

For the past four weeks, girls from all over Naples have been in rehearsals for the upcoming Miss Cinderella Pageant. The pageant consists of 4 age groups: Cinderella Tot (ages 3-6); Cinderella Miniature Miss (ages 7-9); Cinderella Miss (ages 10-12); and Cinderella Teen (ages 13-17).

The pageant will be held at the Pegasus Restaurant on Sunday, June 6th. The overall winners of each category will receive a banner, trophy, crown and other prizes. First and second runner-ups also receive trophies. A special award will be given to Miss Congeniality, Best Talent and Most Photogenic.

Good luck to all the girls and may the best girls win.

SCOTT FLEMING - NY TIMES CARTOONIST

by Missy Cheaney

A new Sunday cartoon is on it's way to the New York Times. It's called "Bunny Wars" and is made by 14-year old Scott Fleming.

Scott attends Naples Christian Academy, but will be going to Naples High next year.

Scott saw an ad for comics in a paper and sent in 15 Bunny Wars strips about 6 months ago. He then received a letter saying they would print it!

"Bunny Wars" has scenes from M*A*S*H, Apocalypse Now, the Vietnam war, and many others. So watch for them!

And much applause from Kids News to Scott Fleming.

ENMS LOSES BAND DIRECTOR

by Joyce Poole

May 28, East Naples Middle School band students got together for their final band concert of the year. Mr. Matthews, the band director, received a few presents from his students. The intermediate band students gave Mr. Matthews a plaque of appreciation. The advanced band students gave him two tickets to the Naples Dinner Theatre.

Mr. Matthews receives gifts every year from his students, but this year was special. Mr. Matthews is leaving East Naples Middle School.

Our loss of Mr. Matthews will be the gain of Golden Gate Middle School. So congratulations Golden Gate, because you are getting the best band director in the state of Florida.

We're 1 Year Old! Seems like a good time to reminisce about our beginnings and our growth:

Can it be just one short year ago that T.L. Lawrence (the editor) and his mother (the publisher) were saying what a shame it was that Kids never knew what was going on around town, or what Kids in other schools did - mostly because Kids don't read the newspaper - most of it is boring to them. "What a shame someone doesn't put out a newspaper just for Kids", T.L.'s mother said. "What a great idea!" T.L. said. (His mother said "Me and my big mouth!")

Starting with 2 people who meant well, but knew absolutely nothing about publishing, we think we've come a long way in one short year.

Our staff started with T.L.'s friend, Ricky Duggan joining up. We distributed 5,000 copies around Naples and we started getting mail and phone calls. Ken French called - he wanted to join up. Ken is now our fantastic advertising manager. Missy Cheaney sent in a couple of articles to be published, then called and joined the staff. We grew and grew - Pilar Cortez, Sabrina Sharpe, Tami Stange. Just this month we added Joyce Poole

We have had some nice letters about Kids News. You may recall when we ran the letter from Governor Bob Graham, and one from "Dear Abby" herself.

Kids News has made news in the last year. We have been written up in the Golden Gate Eagle, the Miami Herald, the Naples Star and the Fort Myers News Press. We have been interviewed twice by Channel 9 news!

Kids News staffers are not given assignments - this is not school. They may write on any subject they wish, however, we avoid articles on sex, drugs, religion, or anything that is downgrading to Kids. No one is paid for writing for Kids News.

The Kids receive a 15% commission on all advertisements they bring in to help pay for Kids News. It has only been the last month or two that the ads have paid for the cost of printing. The difference comes out of the publishers pocket in those months we do not have enough advertising money to pay for the printing cost.

After all the pictures are taken and developed - they don't all turn out good enough to appear in Kids News (we have a lot to learn about photography yet) - after all the typing is completed - Richard B. Lansdale, a local attorney, allows us to type Kids News on his office equipment (for which we are eternally indebted to him) - after all the bits and pieces are pasted up - we are also eternally indebted to Charlie Utz of Naples Ad-Graphics Services for his many hours spent teaching us paste-up - after all this, we're ready for the printers - drum roll, please!

Kids News is printed by the Suncoast Publishing Company - they also print the Naples Star - and not only do they do an excellent job for us, but the people there are super!

We have learned a lot this year. We've had a great time, met some wonderful people who were very generous with their time, their money, and their support. We wish we could name them all, but the list is long, and some wish to remain anonymous.

So thank you all for picking up Kids News, and allowing us to serve you for our first year. With your help and interest, we plan to be around for a long time.

Heather Fechter, Jennifer Lynn Sneed and Trinity Melton take a break from rehearsing for the Miss Cinderella contest.

KIDS NEWS WRITING CONTEST CELEBRATES OUR 1 YEAR BIRTHDAY

To celebrate Kids News First Birthday in June, we are announcing a writing contest. The theme is Video Games and First Prize is: $25 in Tokens for the Video Games at Arcade City at Grand Central Station! Other prizes include gift certificates to The Eagle's Nest on Fifth Avenue, the Magic Lantern on Fifth Avenue, The Little Professor Book Center in the Park Shore Shopping Plaza, The Toy Box on the North Trail, plus Kids News T-shirts and more...

Our very first entry was from Kristen Purvis, a 5th grader at Seagate Elementary School. Kristen will receive a Kids News T-shirt during our June 19th celebration, just for being the first entry!

MAYOR PROCLAIMS JUNE 19th KIDS NEWS DAY

Naples own Mayor Billick has proclaimed June 19th Kids News Day in honor of our birthday! On that day we will be at the Pavilion of Grand Central Station celebrating. Join us there! The writing contest winners will be announced on Kids News Day.

Kids 18 and under may enter. Your entry must be received before June 15th. You may include art work if you wish. All winning entries will be published in future issues of Kids News, along with your photograph.

It's easy! Just write an article, a poem, short story, etc. about video games. Are you for them, against them, do you think video games prepare you for the computerized future, or maybe you think they are a bad influence on today's youth. Maybe you want to write an article about how you would design a video game. Should there be an age limit on who can play? Should adults be allowed to play? These are only suggestions. Let your imagination run wild and cash in on some goodies.

Help us celebrate and help yourself to some super prizes.

Send your entries to Kids News, P.O. Box 45, Naples, FL 33939. Call 774-7772 if you have any questions.

SPRING FEVER DAY

SPRING FEVER DAY or DUNK A TEACHER

If you think your teacher's all wet, June 5 is the day to prove it. You can get teachers and maybe even a principal or two sopping wet by dumping them into the dunk tank at the Swamp Buggy Grounds. The event is to raise money for the Big Brother-Big Sister program. Other activities include relay races, egg tosses and tug-o-war.

The fun starts at noon and lasts till 5 p.m. The $3 tickets can be purchased at area sporting goods stores, Collier County high schools and the Youth Guidance office at 512 11st St. N.

It's all in good, clean (wet) fun.

The Civil Air Patrol Cadets held a car wash on Saturday, May 22. They found it a good way to make money and keep cool at the same time - not an easy thing to do these days.

They do a nice job of pulling in customers right off the street...

Another Mercedes? I'd rather wash the compact cars!

Is he wet from the sweat of hard work, or is someone a little careless with the hose? Who cares, it's cool.

OUR STAFF

Who are the members of the Kids News staff? Here is a short blurb on them to introduce them to you.
(Kids News is open to anyone 18 or under who likes to write. You can either send in your writing from time to time, or you can join the staff. Members of the staff are expected to write something every month.)

KEN FRENCH

KEN FRENCH - Attends Naples High School and is the advertising manager for Kids News. Kids News is free and tries to pay for itself through selling advertisements. Ken does a fantastic job, usually bringing in over $100 a month by himself, for which he receives 15% commission. This month he outdid himself in bringing in over $400 which will help pay our printing bill for 2 months. Ken is a tremendous asset to Kids News. Thank you Ken for your energy, enthusiasm, hard work and dedication.

MISSY CHEANEY

MISSY CHEANEY - Hi! I've been on the staff about 7 months. I really enjoy it and plan to major in journalism and photography when I go to college. I'm 14, attend Naples Christian Academy and hope next year I can also write for their school newspaper. This summer (or whenever) our Kids News TV show starts, I hope to be working on that also. I'm in the Young People's Theatre. In the play "Alice in Oz" I played the wizard Saturday nights (T.L. Lawrence played the wizard on Friday nights). It was so much fun. I'm now in the mist of trying to write a play for our next performance. Some of my hobbies are: playing racket ball, photography, collecting thimbles and unicorns, pen pals, riding my bike, plus I'm a real movie buff. I was born in Ft. Lauderdale and Florida has always been my home. For vacation I plan to go to Kentucky and the Bahamas. I really enjoy being on the Kids News staff and would like to thank Judy Lawrence for all her help and inspiration, and thanks to all of you that read and make Kids News so popular.

JOEL EASTMAN

JOEL EASTMAN - I'm 14 years old and in the 8th grade at Pine Ridge Middle School. My hobbies are writing for Kids News, hunting, and making models.

TAMI STANGE

TAMI STANGE - Attends Pine Ridge Middle School and is a member of the Young People's Theatre.

HOME MOVIE SEQUEL TO STAR WARS

Editors Note: In last month's edition of Kids News, T.L. Lawrence wrote about a home movie version of Star Wars that T.L., Ricky Duggan and Paul Agnelli wrote, produced, directed, and filmed. They handled all the special effects themselves and made the signs (it was a silent film), created a monster, etc. After getting rave reviews from all who saw it, T.L. and Ricky got together with Joel Eastman and made a sequel. Here is that story.

by Ricky Duggan

T.L. Lawrence, Joel Eastman and I have just completed our sequel to "Star Wars" (mentioned in last month's issue).

"The Empire Strikes Back" involves a lot of movement and a lot of action. It shows the saga of Luke trying to get back at Darth Vader for destroying most of his fortress. In the end Darth gets away, as we hope for a sequel to our sequel.

FIRST CONTEST ENTRY

Our video game writing contest is moving right along. Kristen Purvis, a 5th grader at Seagate Elementary School is the very first entry Kids News received in the mail. Because Kristen's is the first entry, Kids News will reserve a Kids News T-shirt for her which she can pick up on June 19th at our birthday celebration at Grand Central Station. Congratulations, Kristen!

Here is Kristen's views on one video game - Pac Man:

PAC MAN

by Kristen Purvis

Pac Man is a neat game. I think grown ups should not play.

Once upon a time, there was a video game called Pac Man. At night Pac Man would turn on by itself and Pac Man and the ghosts would come alive and it would eat Pebbles and stones or whatever it could find.

So one night Pac Man did what he did every night, but he saw something he had never seen before. He saw a cat! He did not know what it was so he hid. When the cat was gone, he came out.

Now Pac Man goes to other places beside where he went. The End.

GAME: BOOT HILL

by Joel Eastman

You ramble into town on your horse, and all of a sudden you hear shots coming from the saloon. A man drops over on the street. Wyatt Earp walks out of the saloon with smoke coming from his guns. What do you do? You draw, and try to shoot Wyatt Earp, or will you be shot by him?

As you can tell, this is an old west game much like Dungeons and Dragons. The time period is from 1869 to after 1885.

You roll dice to find out your speed with guns and knives, to see what your accuracy is, and find out how strong and brave you are.

You can be a cowboy, guard, coroner, lawman, deputy, justice of the peace, bartender, gunfighter, teamster, civilian scout, and even an undertaker.

You, too, can be a great gunfighter or even a famous lawman. You choose what you want to be, so go and try Boot Hill. You can buy it at toy stores around town. It's a great game!

T.L. LAWRENCE - (Tom Lawrence = T.L.). I have been on the Kids News staff from the beginning. I am 13 and go to East Naples Middle School. Next year I'm going to Lely. I'm the Kids News president and editor. That means I OK most of the articles that go into Kids News. My hobbies are girls, Dungeons and Dragons, girls, video games, and girls. I am also in the Young People's Theatre. I would like to become an actor or comedian.

RICKY DUGGAN

RICKY DUGGAN: Hobbies - drumming, computers. Ambition - psychiatrist. I am very serious about becoming a psychiatrist, though I have ambitions beside that. I am fascinated by computers, and I think if I ever got the idea of being a psychiatrist out of my head, I would become a computer specialist. I also enjoy playing the drums. I hold the 1st chair in our "East Naples Middle School Advanced Band". I have recently tried out for the Lely bands. My placement was marching band and concert band. I feel in later years, once I get a steady job, I will attempt to get a night club act together. The rest of my spare time is spent with my family and friends.

PILAR CORTez

PILAR CORTez - I am 4'8", in the 7th grade in East Naples Middle School. I'm 12, have long brown hair and brown eyes, and my birthday is September 27. I like to sew, cook, sing, dance, ice skate, swim, write poems. Also I like animals, nature, music, Smurfs, the arts and children. I'm in Student Council, chorus and ensemble. I've performed at N.H.S., E.N.M.S. and Sarasota. I'm seriously thinking of singing for a career. I love meeting people and living life to its fullest. I like to work with Kids News.

JOYCE POOLE

JOYCE POOLE - A 7th grader at East Naples Middle School - wants to be a lawyer - also a model, singer and actress. Joyce just completed two plays: "Alice in Oz" for the Young People's Theater, and "This Is My Country" for East Naples Middle School. She has studied ballet, tap and jazz for 6 years - has been in cheerleading for 8 years, and was a cheerleader for the Senior Gators this year. She has performed in "Annie Get Your Gun" for the Naples Dinner Theater and "West Side Story" for the Naples Dance Academy, and has acted in performances for the Naples Junior Theater. Joyce is currently in the Miss Cinderella Contest held locally. She sings in her church choir and church musicals and sang for Skit Night at Lely High School. Besides her busy schedule, Joyce enjoys horseback riding, roller skating and swimming.

WORLD'S FAIR

by Missy Cheaney

LeAnn Bridges of Lely High School went to the World's Fair. She gave me some of the points of interest:

They got there on the first day it was open. All the exhibits she saw had to do with energy and its future uses. The exhibits came from all around the world with each trying to outdo the other.

Some countries brought in art work and there were even pieces of the Great Wall of China.

If you wanted to taste some foreign foods, there was a big building with foods from around the world you could buy.

President Reagan was there on the first day, but you couldn't see him because of his body guards. Many other famous politicians were there also.

The Fair was held on the University of Tennessee grounds. Many of the students worked the Fair.

If you expected to ride a lot of rides there, it would have been a disappointment because there were very few. The world's largest ferris wheel was brought over from Europe. But they had problems bringing it to the Fair. It is so big it had to be brought over by boat. It broke off into the water and had to be shipped back to Europe to be fixed and painted.

Riding the ferris wheel was LeAnn's favorite part. "It was so tall you could see everything!", she said.

To get into the World's Fair cost $9.50 per ticket (for schools). Rides and food are extra.

As LeAnn walked around, she noticed people from all around the world. So if you thought Naples was far from the World's Fair, how would you like to come from China!

Now we just need someone to go and sit in class for us and we'll have it made.

"THIS IS MY COUNTRY"

Play at East Naples Middle School

by Pilar Cortez

On Wednesday, May 26 at 7:00 East Naples Middle School presented the play "This Is My Country." Shawn Joyce played the lead role of Scooter Baxter, a lazy unaware kid. Other performers include Joyce Poole, Leslie Tomasino, Sabrina Sharpe and the E.N.M.S. Chorus. The play covered the time period from modern back to colonial days and back up to modern times.

Many people loved Act 1 Scene 3 with Carolyn Calderwood as Nancy Wilkins and Robert Davis as the sneaking drunk Jed Wilkins. When Nancy finds Jed she flips him over her shoulder (point for women's liberation).

All actors and actresses were delightful. Each one of them deserves credit. But behind the talent of these kids is the people who put it all together - Mrs. Abbate, Mr. Stump, Mr. Slaughter, Mrs. Martinez, Mr. Waller and helpers, Mrs. Boqvist, Mr. Fowell, the teachers and Mr. Campbell for allowing the play to go on.

Although some people forgot some lines, it was a big success to the 400 people who watched it.

SUMMER JOBS

by Missy Cheaney

Summer is here - and time for summer jobs. And good news - work permits are NOT needed anymore; just proof of age.

Although in most places you have to be 16 to get a job, there are some that you don't have to be that old for, such as: babysitting, dog walking, working at fast food places, bagboy at a grocery store, plant sitting, gardening, working at a relatives or friends business, delivering papers, etc.

There are many other things you can do, but first, start with something you're interested in - that way it will be a lot more fun and you'll probably want to keep your job longer.

RUBIK - ENDURING FAD?

by T.L. Lawrence

Fads start out usually as a joke, then, before you know it all of America is into the latest one. One of the newer ones is the Rubik's Cube. But it seems Rubik is dying of over exposure. The Cube has gone down in the history book of novelties.

But fear not! Rubik will have his day again as Rubik's Revenge is the name of his latest puzzle. The Cube only has 9 squares on one side, but Revenge has an incredible 16!

When the fad of Revenge dies down, Rubik will probably strike again - can you believe a cube with 60 little squares?!
