AMERICAN INDIAN DAYS

by Missy Cheaney

The American Indian Days show was held on November 13 and 14 at the Swamp Buggy Grounds.

I first saw and admired the numerous handmade crafts. My favorite is the cloth they make for skirts, dresses, jackets and head bands. The many designs are made from very small pieces of material sewn together and the odds of 2 shirts, dresses or anything looking alike is almost impossible. Some other crafts were: tomahawks, jewelry, belt buckles, etc.

Soon everyone's attention was called to the alligator pit, where I saw the skill of alligator wrestling. The announcer said that an alligator doesn't have any muscles to open his mouth, but they were all used to snap his mouth shut!

We also saw an Indian fashion show, and 2 Indian dances - a scary dance by Tina Osceola (15) and a traditional dance by Lee Zepeda (13).

For someone with the munchies, there was fry bread, either filled with fruit, plain, or taco style.

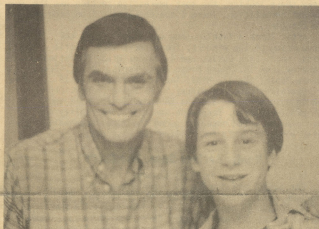

The Indian Days exhibit is fun, interesting and educational. I recommend it for all.

KIDS NEWS GOES TO HOLLYWOOD — TAPES NATIONAL TV SHOW "FANTASY"

Peter Marshall of "Fantasy" TV Show and T.L. Lawrence - Kids News Editor

by T.L. Lawrence

Yes, that's Peter Marshall and me after taping the TV show "Fantasy" in Hollywood, California! Mr. Marshall is the one on the left. Because of a letter my grandmother sent to the show, she and my mother and I were flown out to Hollywood Friday, November 19 and presented with a check for $2124.00 for Kids News!

"Fantasy" is a show new to this area. You write in your fantasy and if they like it, they fulfill it. One woman wrote in that she LOVED chocolate, so they delivered 1000 pounds of her fantasy to her house in the Fantasy truck. They've also sent people on trips and reunited relatives.

Well, unknown to my mom and me, my grandmother sent a letter to "Fantasy" about Kids News. She mailed it on a Friday and they called her on the following Monday. They had us flown out to Hollywood the next Friday! We really flipped out! National TV!

On the plane out we watched Star Trek II - The Wrath of Khan, ate, slept and tried not to be nervous about the show. "Fantasy" asked Grandma not to tell us what her letter said, so we didn't know what to expect.

At the airport in Los Angeles, we passed Richard Simmons - the exercise guru - in a jogging suit. He looks just like he does on TV.

We went right to our hotel - the Marina Marriott in Marina Del Rey and ordered room service. Our meal allowance from "Fantasy" was $30 per day each for my mother and grandmother, but only $25 per day for me. They obviously don't understand the teenage appetite or it would have been the other way around.

American Beauty Girl

by Missy Cheaney

The American Beauty Girl Pageant was held on November 7th, at the Golden Gate Community Center.

While the girls were primping and preparing for the judging of their long gowns, one by one, they went out for the personal interview with the judges.

Although the dresses were gorgeous and the sportswear very sharp looking, the most impressive section was the talent competition. There I saw everything from singing to clogging.

After lunch a fashion show was given. Then the announcing of the winners. The winners were: Little Miss: Heidi Lynn Davis, age 4, Junior Miss: Christina Rohaley, age 10, Young Miss: Joyce Poole, age 12, Teen: Janet Poole, age 17, Miss: Sabrina Cheaney, age 19.

Overall photogenic winner: - Michelle Drawdy. Other photogenic winners: Sabrina Cheaney, Janet Poole and Stephanie Wharron. Stephanie won Miss Congeniality and her mom won most congenial among the moms. Stephanie also won a color TV for selling the most ads.

Bonita Springs Sugar and Spice

by Missy Cheaney

The winners of the Bonita Springs Sugar and Spice Pageant were: Michelle Wen Gourley (7 months), Philip "Chase" Faso (3 months), Beverly Jane Burke (14 months), Dylan Naftal (15 months), Amy Christman (2 years), Randy Schoolcraft (2 1/2 years) and Jennifer Lynn Gourley (3 years).

Photogenic winners were: Randy Schoolcraft and Amy Christman.

Randy Schoolcraft and Tiffany Sneed have done it again - on November 20, they both won the titles of King and Queen in the Little Miss America (King and Queen) contest held in Ft. Meyers - Congratulations.

THE OFFICIAL E.T. FAN CLUB

If you're an E.T. freak - and aren't we all - here's how to join the official E.T. fan club. Send $6 in check or money order to: OFFICIAL E.T. FAN CLUB, P.O. BOX E.T. DEPT 22, MT. MORRIS, IL 61054. You will receive an E.T. record and a fan club membership kit, which includes an 8x10 photo, coloring poster, membership certificate and membership card. Plus 4 issues of the E.T. newsletter!

GULFSHORE LIFE TV SHOW

You've all seen "Gulfshore Life", the magazine. Well, now those same people will be bringing you "Gulfshore Life" the weekly TV magazine - 1/2 hour of lifestyles, activities and interests of people (including kids) in the Naples/Ft. Meyers area. It will be broadcast on WEVU/TV 26 beginning December 18 at 7 p.m. and rebroadcast that Sunday at 11:15 p.m.

We especially want to bring this new show to your attention as "Gulfshore Life" is doing a segment on Kids News which will probably be shown on January 1, 1983. Thank you.

EAST NAPLES MIDDLE SCHOOL EVENTS

by Marci Flowers

The Drama Club at East Naples Middle School will be holding its first play soon. It's called "Thirteen". If you go to this school and like to be in plays or want to change your character, come on and join. It's fun.

November 1-5 was theme week at East Naples Middle School. Monday was Shades and Tie, Tuesday was hat and t-shirt, Wednesday was punk day, Thursday was Hawaiian, Friday was Sadi Hawkins (Country and Western). Thank you Mr. Duggan and the Builders Club. Some of the winners were: Justine Stoddard, Jaycee, Mickey, Melanie Moglevang and Jennel Aires.

CLOWNING AROUND

Tammy Barley and Kerry Cavin of Golden Gate Middle School had clown faces painted on during the Naples Fine Arts Festival at Coastland Mall in November.

50 miles!

Easy Rider

ST. JUDE'S BIKE-A-THON

Saturday, November 6, approximately 34 kids rode their bikes around the Gulfview Middle School track to make money for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Tennessee. The kids had signed up sponsors to pay them for each mile they rode.

And ride they did! Eric Hester rode 50 miles and collected $335.83 from his sponsors for St. Jude's - plus a CB radio for himself from Sunshine Hardware for collecting the most money. Donna Toth rode 25 miles and collected $311.25 from her sponsors - plus a $50 bond from the First National Bank & Trust for her efforts!

Altogether, the 34 kids brought in $2514.10! All to help other kids at St. Jude's.

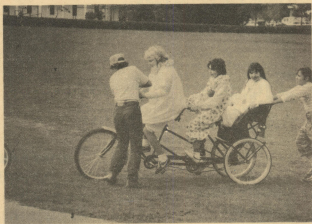

There will be a formal awards presentation of T-shirts and tote bags and other awards. The date has not yet been set, but riders will be notified.

November 27 - The Kids News Quiz Show at Cambler Park was a huge success - to the few who attended. With Missy Cheaney and T.L. Lawrence as emcees and Sandy Knight as the scorekeeper, contestants were chosen from the audience. Two teams of 3 kids each chose their favorite category and cheered when they answered such questions as: Who is the governor of Florida? Who kissed the girls and made them cry? What parts did Henry Thomas and Dru

Barrymore play in E.T.? But there were tougher questions, too, as contestants moaned into the microphone and gnashed their teeth. Name 5 of the 7 draws in Snow White is relatively easy unless EVERYONE is staring at you, waiting, waiting...

The scores were very close, but the team of Anne Denning, John Miner and Eric Light nudged ahead and walked away with 2 tickets each to any Cobb Theatre, a

Missy Cheaney - Kids News Assistant Publisher

Kids News is pleased to announce that Missy Cheaney, a long time staff member, has been made Assistant Publisher. Missy's career goal is photo-journalism. Her interest in Kids News, her hard work and dedication are invaluable assets to this newspaper.

OUR THANKS FOR HELPING KIDS NEWS IN THE SWAMP BUGGY PARADE

Kids News was in the Swamp Buggy Parade on October 30 and we had a ball. But we couldn't have done it without a lot of help. Kids News would like to thank the following people: Joe Randazzo of the Naples Bike Shop for his great "fun" bikes, Bob Huvaere for delivering the bikes to us, and Chris Finger for his mechanical help. And thanks to Chad and Jason Meier, Sasha Jones, Stacey Etheredge, Brian Gaudet, and John Miner for joining the Kids News staff of Sheri Hoy, Sandy Knight, Missy Cheaney, Ken French and T.L. Lawrence.

A THANKSGIVING TOAST

by David Gofton
(with a little help from Mum)

To Thanksgiving, we raise a toast. To this wonderful day and our gracious host.

To Grummy, who cares for me when I'm sick. If I ever marry, you'll be my pick.

To Tom, who is the object of neighborhood rumor: "He's not her boyfriend, he just wants to replace Lumer!"

To Uncle Ben, whom Mary Ellen did settle. You deserve a "Pappy's medal!"

To M.E., so strong and great. Without her support, there'd be no Penn State.

To our special guest, from across the seas. On this Thanksgiving, we hope to please.

To Amy, the swimmer, who's getting thinner and thinner. You'd better gain some weight with this Holiday dinner.

To Dad, so brave and strong. Who teaches me the difference between right and wrong.

To Mom, who is the light of my dream. So enough of this mush, let's get to the ice-cream.

To Benjamin, who always picks on me... Just you wait till I'm 6 foot three!

To Friz and Bandit, our pets so sweet. We'll save some turkey for your Thanksgiving treat.

To David, the apple of his mother's eye. You'd better save some room for Grummy's mincemeat pie!

To Everyone, Dear Jehovah, Buddah, Mohammed, etc. We from all over give thanks this day, for the fact that we are together and well, and warm and well-fed, and reasonably happy. These are hard times to be born into, to grow up in, and to grow old in. We are just so thankful that we have people around us who care what happens to us.

So...whoever or whatever you are...thank you this night, November 25, 1982, that we are...together.

The Quiz Show will be a monthly event at Cambier Park. Don't miss it next time. We guarantee a good time will be had by all. If you don't make it as a contestant, there'll be door prizes in the December show. The exact date has not been set yet, so call Cambier Park at 261-8710 or Kids News at 774-7772 for the day.

The Quiz Show had originally been set for November 20, but had to be postponed to November 27 as the editor and publisher had their fantasies fulfilled in California (see story on page 1).

WE HAVE SOMETHING SPECIAL

by Sandy Knight

We have something special,
let's make it last and last.
But it seems our time together,
has gone so very fast.
I started to take you for granted,
thinking you'd always be here.
But now it has come true,
the worst of all my fears.
Even though you have to go,
let's still be good close friends.
There's really no reason in the world,
for our friendship to have to end.
You know I'll always love you.
And you'll always have a place in my heart.
We have something special.
I've known it from the start.

WORTH WHILE

by Tara Lanfius

I love dandelions
Blowing in the breeze.
I love the flowers
And big shade trees.
I love my life,
Though troubles may flow.
I love the world,
Though it will eventually blow.
I love you,
And you love me,
We're all worth while
If we want to be.

people screaming with joy.
The taste of sale tingles

Fun fun.

SUNSET

by Sandy Knight

A sunset is probably the loveliest thing that I have ever seen.

It makes you lean back and relax and think.
Think about the past, the present and of the future.
It has a calming effect, and puts you in a dreamy
state of mind.

Seeing the sun take its last look and saying goodbye to this side of the world and looking on to say hello to the other side of the world is a wonderful sight!

The blending of the orange and yellow and reddish-pink colors into the pale blue sky is probably the loveliest thing that I have ever seen.

WINTER

by Nina Jain

East Naples Middle School

Winter is finally here.
A beautiful time of the year.
With fresh fallen snow
on the ground,
you jump for joy,
round and round.
On cold nights
you snuggle in bed,
you're freezing,
and your nose is red.
How wonderful it is
that winter has come,
a whole new season
of joy and fun.

LELY PLAYERS

Presented

"Penny and the Magic Medallion"

The Lely Players put on the musical "Penny and the Magic Medallion" at the Lely High Auditorium in November. Elaborate costumes and great stage make-up highlighted the amount of work put into the production - right down to a coloring book handed out with the program.

Set in medieval times, the play took place in a castle complete with king, queen and ladies in waiting.

The Lely Players next production is a Christmas play entitled "Scrooge". See article in this issue.

After eating, my mom and I scouted the area for movie stars. We didn't see any, but did find a video arcade place called West World. They had 2 games I'd never seen before, "Frenzy" and "Cub-Roc" - a 3-D game. Then back to the hotel and room service again.

Saturday morning: room service breakfast and off to the studio - and getting nervous. We waited in a big room with other guests and audience members for about 2 hours. Finally Jane Biebert took us aside and explained that we would sit in the audience till Peter Marshall came to us. Then we stand in the aisle while he asks us questions about Kids News.

Then Jane took us through the backstage area to our seats in the audience. A warm-up man (the producer) came out and explained how he wanted everyone to be real excited and JUMP out of your seat if your name was called. There were spotlights of all kinds all over the ceiling so no matter where the host and hostess (Leslie Uggams) were, there would be a spotlight trained on them.

Peter Marshall and Leslie Uggams fulfilled a boy's fantasy of giving his grandfather a chihuahua to replace one that died, interviewed a pizza man whose pizza made pregnant women have their babies within 24 hours, and showed several films with the Fantasy trucks delivering things to people around the U.S. The kid that plays Alex from "One Day At A Time" came out and sang while a bunch of teen age girls screamed, and Todd Bridges from "Different Strokes" was reunited with a friend he hadn't seen in 8 years.

Kids News Receives $2,124 Thanks to Grandma's Letter

FINALLY, Peter Marshall came up to us...nervous rack city. He introduced our segment by saying I was the youngest newspaper editor in the country and the only one who could call his publisher "Mom"...He asked my grandmother a question, then he asked me several questions, then my mom. Then he gave my mom a check for $2124.00 and my grandmother $300 in cash so she could leave the house during paste-up. (It gets a little messy around that time.) Then it was over. Whew!

The only problem about the money is that you can't take it with you. Grandma had to give the money back, we all went backstage and signed some releases and they mail the money and the check to you in about 90 days!

Backstage I presented a Kids News Press Card to Mr. Marshall and my mom took our picture. Mr. Marshall is a super nice guy, and can make you feel not quite so nervous.

After we signed the release we had to go back to our seats because they taped half of another days show. Very confusing. They tape the other half of the second show on another day with another audience!

After the show we took the scenic route to the hotel and saw the Chinese Theater with the star's names in the sidewalk. Hollywood spelled out on the side of the hill, some real punk rockers with purple hair, etc.

At the hotel, we had room service and collapsed. Then we had a room service snack before going to bed. Sunday morning we had room service breakfast and an hour later went down to the dining room for brunch.

No movie stars at the airport on the trip back. Watched Star Trek: The Wrath of Khan again. Got stranded at the Atlanta airport for several hours due to rain and fog. Home about 2:00 a.m.

It was a fabulous trip and I want to thank my Grandmother for her fantasy, and thank Fantasy for making it all happen. The show will be broadcast December 14 at 3:00 on NBC.

Now, what's the number for room service...

WRITING CONTEST WINNERS

Kids News has published winning articles each month from our June 1982 birthday writing contest. Here is Billy Conley's honorable mention entry.

Video Games

I like video games, but once I start to play I can't stop. My favorite video game is Pac Man. We waste a lot of money on a noise like beep beep and others.

There are a lot of video games, more than 5,000 or even more. Most people say video games are junk. But they are wrong.

I don't think parents like video games because they are so old and they don't know how to handle them. I best go before I get eaten or shot.

And here is an entry by Kelly Anthony, 11 years old.

Video Crazy

My mom and dad hate video games. They say I can't play them 'cause I'm lazy.

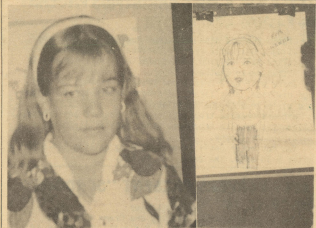

But when I sneak out and go to the arcade, I go "video crazy!"

And here is one by Colby Rosenquist. Colby was only 5 years old, but he dictated it to his sister, who wrote it down for him.

Pac Man

I like Pac Man. Pac Man lived in a house and it was his day to go fishing. He got to the fishing place with a car. When he got there he went to fish. When he got there he saw a fish on his pole. He pulled it out of the water and he cooked it. Then he ate it. After he ate it he went fishing again. Then he started painting a picture of some trees and a lake and a fish on his pole. Then he got another fish on his string. He cooked it and ate it. Then he sat down and painted another picture of water and a fish on his string and trees. Then there was another fish on his string. Then he cooked it and sat down and painted another picture of some water and fish and string and him sitting on a lawn chair. Then he went home and ate some food at his house. Then he took a nap and got up in the day and ate breakfast. Then he went in the refrigerator and got some orange juice. Then he drank some orange juice. Then he went outside to go to the grocery store to get more breakfast. He got in his car and drove to 7-11. Then he went to the picture store and got a picture. Then he went to the fair and went on some rides.

Then he ate more and got fat and blew up.
