Joyce Poole

Janet Poole

2 SISTERS WITH BEAUTY & TALENT — AND THE TROPHIES TO PROVE IT!

by T.L. Lawrence

It all started in the little town of Naples, when 2 sisters, Joyce and Janet Poole, won the local Miss Charm pageant in their respective age groups. In July of 1982, they were anxiously waiting the results for the national Miss Charm pageant in Washington D.C. Joyce's 13-16 age group was first to be announced. When they called out number 37, Joyce screamed and hugged the girl next to her. When it came time to announce Janet's age group (17-25), someone asked if Janet knew Joyce had won; Mrs. Poole saw tears of happiness on Janet's face, and said, "She knows." Just then they announced the winner — number 2 — and Janet won in her age group!

They are the only sisters ever to win a national pageant, and they were the youngest in their age groups in the Miss Charm pageant.

Their duties include touring for Miss Charm for the next year; they will interview with a top N.Y. modeling agency; they each received 6 foot high trophies and real fox fur coats. At the end of their reign they will each receive a $2,000 bond! According to the rules of the Miss Charm pageant, neither of the girls are allowed to enter any more pageants until their year is up. (Last year Janet won the Naples Shrine Club pageant, and she will pass on the title to a new winner on August 20 at Barron Collier High.)

Joyce will be a freshman at Lely High this year, and Janet begins Edison Community College. (For all you loyal Kids News readers, you may remember Janet on the cover of the May '82 issue.)

"Love yourself, that's where it all begins and it all ends," stresses Frankie Z. Avery, psychic and astrological counselor.

FRANKIE Z. AVERY, PSYCHIC

by Missy Cheaney

Frankie is a well known psychic from Jacksonville. She has been on several national radio and TV shows, and has solved 2 police investigations.

On July 16 she held a seminar at the Naples Depot. The class involved reading auras, (interpreting the colors in the natural heat given off by your body), meditating, positive feelings of yourself, etc.

Frankie said that my aura was yellow which meant I was thinking, and that it was darker around my mouth which meant I probably need dental work (I do). She also said I would be very successful and spend most of my time between California and New York. I hope she's right!

Frankie is an Aquarius and enjoys working on her book, practicing guitar and watching airplanes. She would like to eventually reside in Bonita Springs.

PAGEANTRY

by Colleen Duggan

Pageants are a lot of fun and difficult. The competition is hard and sometimes easy. There are sad times and happy times. When your name is called you feel like jumping up and down but you must compose yourself. You have to control yourself on stage.

The excitement back stage is enough to get your blood flowing with everybody hustling and bustling to prepare for modeling sportswear, talent, or evening gown — whatever the competition may call for. It is fun. I really enjoy it. I have hopes of continuing to the top as I work very hard at it.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Colleen won the American Beauty Girl pageant in her age group and was a runner-up in Cinderella Girl. She has been asked to entertain at the Shriners Pageant on August 20. Colleen is 8 years old and attends Shadowlawn School.)

PROFILE: BEN HANSON

by Marcella Flowers

Ben Hanson is 11 years old and moved from England to Naples 1 year ago.

(Q.) Why do you like Naples better than England?

(A.) Because the weather is warmer!

(Q.) What were the schools like in England?

(A.) Strict!

(Q.) What other countries have you been to?

(A.) France, Germany, Scotland, Wales, and Spain.

(Q.) Are video games big in England? Do you have Atari in England?

(A.) No, no.

(Q.) Did you have a hard time understanding some of the expressions that we use in America?

(A.) Yes — Valley Girl.

(Q.) As you know, "punk" originated in England, were there a lot of punks in England?

(A.) Yes — with different colored hair.

(Q.) What did you do for amusement in England?

(A.) Play cricket.

(Q.) If you could live in any country in the world, where would you live?

(A.) America.

SUMMER MOVIES

by Erik Kellar

Is Darth Vader really Luke's father? Is Superman dead? Is Lois Lane in a slump? You will find this out and more.

Return of the Jedi is a breathtaking action-packed film. I think it's better than the first two movies in the Star Wars series. It will keep you in suspense. It is great for all ages.

Superman III has a strange twist to it, but it is still as good as the past two Superman movies. It is ok for kids, but I do not know about the adults.

"The Survivors"

by Tara Lanius

Recently I saw the movie, "The Survivors." The movie was in good taste, funny and full of wit. Of course, how could a movie not be full of wit with fine actors such as Robin Williams, Walter Matthau, and Jerry Reed.

Robin Williams plays a man who gets fired by a parrot, gets a gun pointed on him by a lady he's known for years, and then gets kicked out of the unemployment office. By chance, Walter Matthau (Sonny) had somewhat the same kind of day and they both wound up in the same diner. That's when Jerry Reed (Jack) shows up, and when they declare war, watch out!

I highly recommend the movie if you have a sense of humor, a fast wit and don't mind watching a fast moving, plotless story.

VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED

by Wendy Salvia

Are you interested in helping those people who really need it? You have a chance to spend time with older people at the Greater Naples Care Center. It's a fun way to spend your summer and to get involved with the older generation.

This is a special way to spend time for you and also the residents. Some of your duties will be crafts, bingo, visiting, taking residents to the lake, hair care, manicures, and much more.

This really does help, so if you care call 261-2554 and ask for Meryletta Herman.

The Hamburglar and Ronald also visited the Pediatric ward of Naples Community Hospital.

RONALD RETURNS TO NAPLES BRINGS HAMBURLAR

by Jenny Prue

On July 12 and 13, Ronald McDonald and the Hamburglar came to Coastland Mall and had a show, "The Big Red Shoe Review." Ronald did a magic act with help from Jakelin, Kim, Carrie, and Emily from McDonald stores around town. And then he had some kids up to do a "loop de do" dance.

He held a race with Todd and Heather from the audience, who had to run and put on costumes — a magician and Wonder Woman costume — come back, sit on a balloon and pop it, then run back, take off the costume, then finish by touching Ronald. Heather was first and got a giraffe balloon. Todd got a Snoopy balloon. All the kids got a sponge with the French Fry Guy on it.

POETRY CORNER

LOST WITHOUT YOU

DEDICATED TO MILES, NARDA, THOMAS, & RICHARD

by Pilar Cortez

Since you've gone, my soul is barren.

My heart is empty with only memories of your soft smile.

Bright memories of caring moments make me long for one glimpse of you.

A picture cannot replace the warmth of your smile.

I love you more than I can say.

You never told me you were going.

I dream at night and I can only see your face.

I pray that someday you will come back.

Yet for now I'm lost without you.

PLEASE...

by Sandy Knight

Please, don't leave me, my love — I am fragile like a dove, and need your guiding hand.

Please, don't push me along, or try to sing for me my song, just hold me up and help me to stand.

Please, don't tell me what to do, or try to change the old to new,

your being here is just enough.

Please help me to find the way, although I know from day to day on both of us it will be rough.

I will always be here for you — it's the least I could ever do —

'cause you've always been here for me.

I need you so very much and thrill at your sight and touch.

So please... please, don't ever leave me.

MY GUN

by Tara Lanius

The outdoors is lots of fun, although sometimes I take my gun. I shoot at everything in sight, sometimes I shoot just out of sight. Of course my gun I don't have to reload, if it had real bullets it might

EXPLODE!

MY DOG

by Katrina Davis

My dog is so small,

my dog isn't very tall.

He is all black.

Sometimes I have to give him a smack.

But I forgot to tell you his name,

we call him Scruff —

because he is rough.

The boys are modeling fashions from The Eagle's Nest, 455 5th Avenue — the store for young men of all ages.

LADY D.J.s

DONNA WINN

KIM E. STYLES

by Sonja Craparo

There is only one female D.J. at G-93 and that's Kim E. Styles. So I decided to talk to Kim about being a D.J.

(Q) What got you started being a D.J.?

(A) I always wanted to do it and in Detroit I couldn't. It's a big city.

(Q) How many years have you been a D.J.?

(A) 3 years.

(Q) Do you like being a D.J.?

(A) Yes, it's like acting.

(Q) What do your friends think about you being a D.J.?

(A) It's so exciting.

(Q) What do you think about being the only girl D.J.?

(A) I love it. At least I don't get confused with someone else.

(Q) What college did you go for broadcasting?

(A) Wayne College in Detroit.

(Q) What do you like most about being a D.J.?

(A) It's the closest thing to show business.

(Q) What is your most embarrassing moment?

(A) Commercial bloopers.

(Q) What are your favorite groups?

(A) J. Geils, Rolling Stones, Men at Work.

(Q) Does being a D.J. take a lot of work?

(A) No, not a lot of work, but a lot of concentration.

And that about wrapped it up. I thanked Kim for taking time to talk.

Listen to Kim every Sunday night 6:00 to midnight on G-93 WRGI.

by Missy Cheaney

Donna Winn (26) is one out of several female disc jockeys in Naples. She joined the FM-96 staff 2 months ago. She heard about the opening from Jack "What a Guy" Dillon, and got the job because of her good speaking voice, even though she has no past experience in a radio station.

When asked about her future plans, she replied: "I'm always really happy with what I'm doing, so I don't look for things that are better; but if something better comes along, I'll go for it!"

Her past work experiences were teaching adult education and yoga classes; teaching exercise classes and working at an airline. Donna enjoys horseback riding, boating, reading, and most important, being with her husband.

Her favorite performers are: Alabama, Marshall Tucker Band, Beatles, Louise Mandrell, Kenny Rogers and Michael Murphy.

You can tune in to Donna weeknights until midnight, Fridays 6 til 2 and on Saturdays noon-6:00.

NO SMOKING

by Sheri Hoy

Smoking is hazardous to your health. From smoking you can get lung cancer.

In 1971, the congress of the U.S. prohibited all cigarette commercials on TV. Also in 1971, the law demanded that all cigarette packages must read: "Warning: the Surgeon General has determined that cigarette smoking is dangerous to your health."

When you smoke, think of this:

What box do you want to buy: a BOX of cigarettes, or a pine BOX to be buried in?

ADVENTURE TO THE DARK CONTINENT

by Brenda Richard

Fleischmann Park took over 30 kids to the Dark Continent, Busch Gardens. As we were to group up, Shelly, Tammy, Denise and I set off. There were lots of rides such as the Congo River Rapids, a wet-n-wild, wonderful water ride, the Python, a free falling, roaring roller coaster. As we left Busch Gardens everybody had a tall tale to tell.
